As an experienced and high performance futures and options prop trader I have read many trading books but only a few have truly impressed me and One Good Trade is one of them One Good Trade is a simple but very powerful concept that all traders should embrace Talking from my own experience One Good Trade and then another Good Trade and another Good Trade is the path to become a consistently profitable trader By the way as you will find out when you read the book One Good

Trade does not mean necessarily a profitable trade but a trade well researched and well executed. Additionally, the book is quite easy to read with many funny prop trading anecdotes. Writing Loved this audiobook as it talks about the concepts used at SMB Capital, which is a top Prop trading firm. Interesting stories are thrown in different chapters showing very different personalities and how they did good at trading. Great narration. Writing great for beginner and intermediate trader who wants to understand why people lose money and how to improve your trading. #Audible1 Writing For all new traders they will be able to relate to a few points, however, at times I felt he took too long to get to the point. I would still recommend the book as I too have had a slight trading slump but live to fight another day. Writing Just a sales pitch. Writing.
