It's one I would recommend as a good read. 271 This was a beta read and oh my gosh . Thatcher has now made that list. Okay I have never read a high school romance this good. Not the typical formulaic crap in most YA published novels. He was so sexy and protective. Her made me swoon and blush quite a few times. I loved the other characters as well. Violet was just so sweet and down to earth. Amber's writing is phenomenal and the story was addicting. It had the perfect mix of everything. Humor spice love dominance friendship and so much more. Arrogant. Cruel. Ruthless. And the most attractive guy I've ever laid eyes on. There must be something wrong with me. Violet St. James doesn't belong in my world. Good. Kind. Pure. She's everything I'm not. She doesn't just look like an angel she is one. And I've fought every impulse to make her mine. My inability to stay away has changed everything. She tells me she's not afraid of the fall. But she should be..
